

THE UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME
 AUSTRALIA

“Notre Dame and its values provide a fundamental basis in which philosophy can flourish and thrive.”

Jesus
 Philosophy student

Humanities & Social Sciences Symposium Program

Thursday 22 June

9.30am	Registration and Morning tea
	Politics & Law	Philosophy & Ethics
10am	Welcome & Alumni panel	Welcome & Alumni panel
Session 1 10.30am	Outsider candidates and rigged elections: How ‘representative’ is your democracy? Adam Jardine	Communities and cultures: Cultural relativism Dr Laura D’Olimpio
Session 2 11.20am	Political mandates: Do they exist? Do they matter? Dr Martin Drum	The scientific method: Falsification, thought-experiment, deduction and induction Dr Richard Hamilton
12.15pm	Lunch
Session 3 1pm	Loss of citizenship as a counter-terrorism tool: The creation of stateless citizens Dr Daniel Baldino	Phenomenology: Reflection on the structure and meaning of conscious experience Dr Ines Rodrigues
1.50pm	Close

For further information please contact Charlene Ellison: 08 9433 0531 | charlene.ellison@nd.edu.au

Venue: The University of Notre Dame Australia, Fremantle Campus

Register notredame.edu.au

Fremantle

Broome

Sydney